

E SALT LAKE HERA

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1904

LAST EDITION.

WEATHER FOR SALT LAKE

Fair; Warmer.

A TIP!

If you want to do business, Advertise in The Herald. It gets results.

BIG BATTLE HAS NOT COMMENCED

Japanese Report Some Slight Anniversary Celebration of a Successes Nov. 18.

LIAR WEAPON.

OKIO, Nov. 20, 1 p. m.-Increasing

Army headquarters yesterday received the following report from Field Marshal Oyama, dated Nov. 18:

"At dawn today a detachment of the
"At dawn today a detachment of the fected no damage.

"A body of the enemy's infantry was "A body of the enemy's infantry was discovered at Hsianya and Hsiaoyantzu. We shelled them and they fled in confusion to a neighboring village.

"The enemy have burnt Huanglashetzu and villages to the southeast of the right bank of the River Hun."

STINKPOTS AS WEAPONS.

Japanese Adopt Ancient Chinese Method of Warfare.

Chefoo, Nov. 20, 3:30 p. m.—The local President Roosevelt.
Russian consul has received from Port President. Arthur a letter describing the use by the Japanese of a peculiar missile. This missile looks like a long sausage. The Japanese throw it into the trenches and it bursts, giving off an odor so foul that if it is not thrown out of the trenches immediately the soldiers faint. The gas is not fatal in its effect.

MAGAZINE EXPLODED.

Japs Bombarded Port Arthur in the Afternoon of Nov. 19.

Tokio, Nov. 20, 6 p. m.-A telegram from the forces besieging Port Arthur, dated Nov. 19, reports that during the afternoon of that day in a bombardment by naval guns, a magazine near the arsenal was exploded. The dispatch concludes as follows:

"Our operations against all the forts the work."

headquarters:

'At noon Nov. 19 we shelled the enemy's infantry, engaged in intrenching east of Reiuchlangtun, also a body of infantry in the rear of the village, causing them to flee in confusion.

President's Address. "In other directions there is no

FIRE ON HOSPITAL SHIPS.

Japanese Charged With Violating Rules of Civilized Warfare.

harbor, a personal letter charging the Japanese with a violation of the rules ror, the letter of General Balashoff was not delivered to the Associated Press until today.

quests the publication of the charges affairs of the nation at the dawning of that the Japanese deliberately disreting agreement. In greeting all of you garded the obligations of the Geneva I wish to say that I am especially glad they have compelled the abandonment, by the Russians, of three plainly marked hospital ships and that the wounded who were on board the haltsunken steamer Angara also had to be removed. These ships, says General Balashoff, were anchored where they did not interfere with the Japanese fire to make, to dwell upon this thought—

General Balashoff, "but earlier I no-ticed several instances of a concentra- woman in that home. The future of communicating with Port Arthur, it is learned that of six duplicate letters which were sent from Chef. eral Balashoff from various sources, only one succeeded in reaching him.

WILL ATTACK THURSDAY.

(Continued on Page 2.)

PRESIDENT MADE NOTABLE SPEECH

Washington Church.

PORT ARTHUR BOMBARDED STREET PACKED WITH PEOPLE

GENERAL NOGI USING A PECU. MANY DISTINGUISHED PRE-LATES PRESENT.

Washington, Nov. 20. - President activity along the Shakhe river Roosevelt made an address today at the seems to indicate the imminence 110th anniversary celebration at the of another great battle.

The Russian feints, evidently intendCarrol hall, the new parochial buildings ed to draw a Japanese attack, are uni- and parish school. The Rev. Dr. J. Army headquarters yesterday re- Stafford, rector of St. Patrick's, acted enemy made an attack near Hsinglung-church, attended the exercises, the "Since this morning the enemy in the vicinity of Shakhe village have indirectly bombarded our positions with mortars and field pieces. They have effected no days are stored in the construction of the board of directors of the District of Columbia, was the construction. was the concluding speaker.

The addresses were made from a balcony on the second floor of the rec-tory and the audience gathered in the streets. The intersection of Tenth and G streets northwest, Washington, was packed with people and the crowd extended fully a square north and south, east and west, from the rectory. Dr. Stafford in his opening remarks referred to the fact that in the century and more the St. Patrick's church had worked in Washington no honor had come to it so great as the visit of President Cheered.

The Knights of Columbus, formed a guard of honor for the president, but a squad of policemen was necessary to open the way through the crowded streets. Cheer after cheer went up as the president and his escort appeared. He was met at his carriage by Stafford and as he passed into the rectory, a children's choir of 200 voices, stationed in front of the church, sang

Before the ceremony was begun the president was shown through the hand-some new rectory. When he stepped out on the balcony he was cheered loudly, the demonstration doubling when Cardinal Gibbons took a place by the president's side and invited him to

"Our operations against all the forts the work of St. Patrick's parish, its growth, and its aim for the future. He proceed as prearranged"

The following dispatch has been received from the Manchurian army fied to the value of the parish and gave great credit to the efforts of its rector. Dr. Stafford then introduced President

Chefoo. Nov. 29.—General Balashoff, the head of the Red Cross society at the school, hall, and rectory of this Port Arthur, sent to the Associated Press on the torpedo destroyer Rasto-sary we also how celebrate, for this parish arrived here from Port which arrived here from Port Rasto-sary we also how celebrate, for this parish was founded six years before The cellar was stored with inflammable of their death would kill him and have not told him of their fate. plause.) I am glad indeed, to have civilized warfare. Owing to an erbeen introduced, Cardinal Gibbons, by peculiar sense to that Bishop Carroll who played so illustrious a part in the affairs of the church and whose kinhis letter General Balashoff re- folk played as illustrious a part in the this government. In greeting all of you to see the children present. (Cheers and High Standard Needed.

"You know I believe in children. did not interfere with the Japanese fire against the Russian warships. He further says that the Japanese, who use mind of every man and woman here, balloons to direct their fire and who drop their shells with minute accuracy we need wise laws, honestly and fearinto the harbor, cannot mistake the lessly executed, and while we can not hospital ships and he charges that they afford to tolerate anything but the deliberately drive the wounded from highest standard in the public service ships for the purpose of sinking of the government, yet that in the last analysis the future of the country 'This occurred recently," continues must depend upon quality of the inditiced several instances of a concentra-tion of fire on portions of the town - this country depends upon the way in voted almost exclusively to hospitals.

"Other instances of tractvilized warfare are namerous, but I have no time to write of them. I have scarcely time way in which the average boy or girl o eat and sleep.'

General Balashoff requests that his letter serve as his protest to the world against the tactics of the Japanese.

Therefore, a peculiar responsibility rests upon those whose life work it is to see to the spiritual welfare of our zens of the future so that they shall be worthy of that future. In wishing you well today I wish you well in doing the most important work which is allotted to any of our people to do."

Rules Are Simple.

WILL ATTACK THURSDAY.

Jepanese to Make Auother Assault

Upon Port Arthur.

Chefoo, Nov. 29, 4 p. m.—Another at tack on Etz mountain is expected to occur Nov. 24, according to Chinese who left Dalny yesterday. The Chinese Curther report that reinforcements for the Japanese continute to arrive. For the past ten days 1.000 mill like to. I wish to see ments for the Japanese continute to arrive. For the past ten days 1.000 mill like to. I wish to see mile average American citizen the development of their sum make up the type of character when the past ten days 1.000 mill like to. I wish to see mile average American citizen the development of the Sandth was a sweetness and they had captured them. They also saw 150 prisoners, including three officers brought in. Some of the citizens of Dalny expected that the attack Nov. 24 would be general, Etz mountain being the chief object of attack. Five more heavy guin recently arrived from Japan.

Living in the Trenches.

Eield Headquarters of the Second Japanese Army. Nov. 19. 4 p. m.—(Vin Fusan, Nov. 20.)—The past few days have been unusually quiet along the Shakhe river. The front of General Oku's army and the Russians have been firing only occasional shots. The armies have been lying entrenched and practically in touch for over a month but there have been only cavality and small infantry skirmishes. The Japaneses are army is standing the first colding has proved excellent for the purpose.

Supense Continues.

St. Petershurs Nov. 21. 4 p. m.—(the prose.)

Supense Continues.

St. Petershurs Nov. 21. 4 p. m.—Another and the propose.

Supense Continues.

St. Petershurs Nov. 21. 4 p. m.—Another and the propose.

St. Petershurs Nov. 21. 4 p. m.—Another and the propose.

Supense Continues.

St. Petershurs Nov. 21. 4 p. m.—Another and the propose of the propos Cannot Grow Too Good.

(Continued on Page 2.)

AWAITING EXECUTION.

TWELVE PERSONS SUFFOCATED IMMENSE GOLD STRIKE

Two Entire Families Wiped Out in Brooklyn Tenement House Fire-One Member of Each in Hospital," But Cannot Live.

cape in a tenement building at 186 Troutman street, in the Williamsburg

Triolo and Charles Polognio, are wiped goods out of the buildings and with out, the last living member of each them blocked the way of the fire appabeing now in a hospital with no hope of their recovery. They are Charles Polognio, 35 years old, and Tony Triolo, 13 years old, both of whom are terribly lightning-like rapidity. All the occupants were asleep at the time, and there was much delay in sending in the

The Giambalvos family lived in the rear of the store and succeeded in get-ting out of the building, but before the Marie rear of the store and succeeded in getting out of the building, but before the occupants on the upper floors were arcused their escape had been cut off.

Before the firemen arrived the fire had communicated to the adjoining ten Berlin. Nov. 20.—The German embassy at Constantinople has been officially notified that the officer and soldiers responsible for the recent attack upon Herr Eckhardt, German consular agent at Urface had communicated to the adjoining ten
Berlin. Nov. 20.—The German embassy at Constantinople has been officially notified that the officer and soldiers responsible for the recent attack upon Herr Eckhardt, German consular agent at Urface had communicated to the adjoining tenoccupants on the upper floors were daughter, aroused their escape had been cut off. Mary G

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Smothered be-fore they could reach the fire es-ficient warning and all escaped. Frenzied Italians.

The work of the firemen was greatly Dr. Stafford, the first speaker, told of district of Brooklyn, twelve persons the work of St. Patrick's parish, its met death shortly before 2 o'clock this growth, and its alm for the future. He introduced Cardinal Gibbons, who testimorning.

Two entire families, those of Maranio in Buildings dragged their household.

Justice, the president of the "square deal."

President's Address.

President Roosevelt thanked the rector and joined in the laugh which preceded prolonged cheering. Then he spoke as follows.

"Cardinal Gibbons, Father Stafford and you, my fellow Americans: It is a great pleasure to me to be present with you loday to assist at the dedication of the school, hall, and rectory of this."

Of their recovery. They are Charles Polognio, 35 years old, and Tony Triolo, 13 years old, both of whom are terribly burned. Although in the opinion of the third floor and it was evident that all had been suffocated in their effort to reach the fire escape at the back of the building. The two who were rescued were found in the lower hallway soon after the firemen reached the scene. Working their way through the building, the rescuers discovered the heap of dead on the third floor and within a short time succeeded in taking out nine bodies, but the last was not found until after 8 o'clock this morning. All the bodies were found in the rear

The Dead.

The mother and two small children of the Polognio family. Maranio Triolo, his wife and three Fifth Precinct—Judge Diehl's + court room, City Hall.

Ore Running Thousands of Dollars to the Ton Found at Bull Frog, Nev.

(Special to The Herald.) Tonorah, Nev., Nov. 20.—An authentic report of an immense gold strike in the Bull Frog district reached here today. A ledge of free gold was uncovered near the surface, four inches of which is the greater part gold and run-ning thousands of dollars to the ton. The ledge is four feet wide, all carrying immense values. Samples are here on exhibition. The rush from Goldfield Estimated number of people who have left Goldfield for the Bull Frog district last two days 500.

CONVENTIONS TONIGHT.

+ Conventions to nominate non-par- + + tisan candidates for the city board + + of education will be held in each + + of the five precincts of the city + + at 8 o'clock this evening. The + + places for holding the conventions + meeting house. Precinct-Sixth ward + eeting house, 44 South Fifth +

Third Precinct - High school + + building. Fourth Precinct - Twentieth + + ward meeting house.

+++++++++++++++++++++ THE GUILTY PUNISHED.

LINER AGROUND HARD AND FAST

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Long Island Sound.

FOUR TUGS UNABLE TO MOVE FINDS LETTER FROM CHRIS-THE VESSEL.

from Geona and Naples, lies from Geona and Naples, lies aground tonight on the Long Island shore, one mile west of the Long Beach life saving station. The steamer stranded just before daylight this morning and all efforts throughout the day to get the ship into deeper water have proved futile.

to her alone, pretty little Christene Nelsen sought no proof of her mother's suspicions that Larsen had another sweetheart until six weeks ago when she came across a letter written by her rival in endearing terms to the man whom both loved.

Then Christene sought of Larsen the Four tugs are standing by the ves-sel, and with hawsers made fast to bow and stern, by their united efforts are keeping her from being washed further on the beach.

An attempt was made to float the Sicilian Prince at flood tide, about 5 o'clock this afternoon and with the assistance of her own engines she moved about 1,000 feet, but still held fast to the sandy bottom. The vessel lies easily on the head. lies easily on the beach.

Passengers Aboard.

There is little surf and hardly any wind, and unless a storm breaks it is expected the ship will be pulled off the bar at flood tide in the morning. Should this attempt fail the 600 steerage and twelve cabin passengers will be taken off on steamboats or tugs and brought to this city and the cargo will be lightered. The vessel lies 300 yards off shore in about eighteen feet of

The Sicilian Prince is fourteen days out from Italian ports, and has about 600 Italian emigrants in the steerage. An unusually fast trip had been made and when she struck this morning she was making about twelve knots. Captain Richard Van Wicklen, in station says:

"It was hazy at the time and the captain of the Sicilian Prince was steering a northwesterly course."

day's violent outbreak Upon being taken to the girl quieted down.

Captain's Mistake. His only explanation of the vessel's eing so close inshore is what he learned from some of the crew of the ship, who say that Captain William Hank tene and Larsen, which has resulted in of the Prince liner saw the Sandy Hook the girl's present plight: light and mistook it for the Barnegat light on the Jersey coast. The steamer Denmark about a year and a half ago, grounded so easily that few of the pas-sengers knew of the ship's predicament until daylight. Captain Hank came ashore about 6 o'clock this morning. when he found his vessel was fast aground and immediately got into communication with the agents of the line in this city, who dispatched the wrecking tugs. These arrived early in the the old courtry afternoon and will stand by this after-"I told my gir noon until she is floated. No one was allowed to come ashore from the vessel. The beach on which the Sicinan Prince grounded is marked by several First Precinct—Second ward + wrecks of vessels that have gone ashore there in the past five or six years.

Vessel Rolling Some.

Late tonight it was reported that the Sicilian Prince was still resting easily.

There was somewhat more surf than in Larsen's leaving here. Christene has during the day and the vessel was rolling some, but there was every assurance she would be floated in the morning. The passengers were not in any trust proved false. He is an employe

The Sicilian Prince is a steel vessel of 1,708 tons net. She was built in Green-

JILTED BY LOVER, IS NOW INSANE

Sicilian Stuck in the Sand of Christene Nelsen in Padded Cell at Jail.

PASSENGERS STILL ABOARD THOUGHT JENS LARSEN HERS

TENE SORENSEN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The Prince TRUSTING implicitly in Jens E. line steamship Scililian Prince Larsen's avowal that he was true to her alone, pretty little Christene

Then Christene sought of Larsen the truth. She learned it. He loved Christene Sorensen, another Danish maiden. For Christene Nelsen, he had naught but friendship, and was willing that even that should go.

Now, Christene Nelsen is booked at the county jail on an insanity complaint preferred by her brother, Alfred. The girl who two months ago was a light hearted light hearted, overflowing-with-life young woman is now a wasted little creature, muttering about "the other Christene" in her padded cell.

Miss Larsen, who is 22 years old, was brought to the county jail yesterday about noon, after she had broken down a door at the family home, 550 West First South street, where reside a widowed mother and older brother. Up until a week ago yesterday she had been employed by a Mrs. Ryand at 667 East Third South street.

About 4 o'clock lest Sunday morning. the girl startled her mother by appearing at the home on West First South street, clad only in a night robe. She had been taken with a spell while at the Ryand home and had wanted "to

Since last Sunday, Christene has had but little food, worrying constantly over the fact that she had been jilted charge of the Long Beach life saving for another. It culminated in yesterday's violent outbreak at the house. Upon being taken to the county jail,

Mother Tells Story.

Mrs. Christene Nelsen, mother of the young woman, gave the following ac-and soon after came to our house to board. He and Christene seemed to love each other almost at first sight. He apparently was devoted to the girl. But several months ago I learned that he was paying attentions to Christene Sorensen, a girl who was a passenger on the steamer which brought him from

"I told my girl then of this. But she would not believe it. She said she had too much faith in her lover to believe he would go with another girl. I saw it all, but she could only trust him. "About six weeks ago Christene found left about the house. She saw that it was in a woman's handwriting. She not been herself since."

Larsen is a few months younger than the woman whose reason fled when her alarm and at no time was there any of the Faust Dairy & Creamery compa-panic or fright manifested. family knew his whereabouts and statement could be obtained from him last night.

Christene Only "Sorry." Christene Ne'sen was unable to give lucid account of her little life tragedy without apparent exertion. She said last night:

"I don't know the other girl, the other Christene. No, I can't tell you where Jens is living now, not since he went away—since he left me and went away with Christene Sorensen for his girl. He hasn't said anything to me. No, there has been nothing since that let-I'm sorry.'

That's her only comment. Not angry with man or maid, just "sorry."

She will be examined for insarity at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

NO NEWS RECEIVED OF THE KROONLAND

London, Nov. 20.—No news has been received here regarding the news agency report from Brussels Saturday night that the Red Star line steamer Kroonland had foundered in midocean. Neither the Atlantic Transport line steamer Minneapolis, which was in communication with the which was in communication with the wireless telegraph station at the Lizard, nor the Cunard line steamer Saxonia, which arrived at Queenstown today, spoke

JUDGE CLANCY GETS EVEN WITH HEINZE

Butte, Mont., Nov. 20.—Judge Clancy at 4 o'clock this morning issued a restraining order preventing F. A. Heinze from working the Minnie Healy mine here. The appeal from a decision of Judge Clancy awarding this mine to Heinze is now pending in the supreme court of Montana.

By the closing down of the Minnie Healy 1,000 men will be affected. The present action is based on the allegation that the Minnie Healy people are taking ore from adjoining property belonging to the Amalgamated Copper company.

ST. LOUIS SALOON MAN KILLED BY TWO THUGS

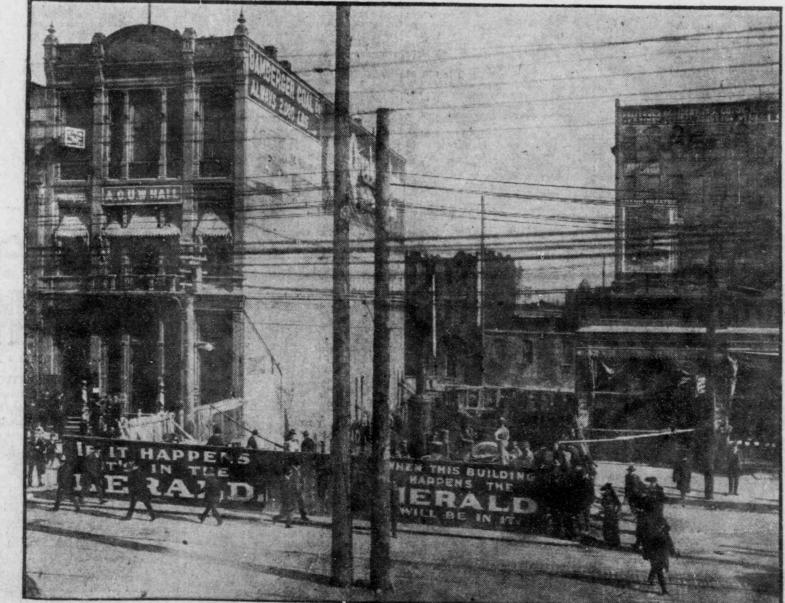

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 20.—Two hats, one bearing the mark of a St. Louis and the other the name of a Chicago hat firm, with a card from the Silver Plate hakery. Denver, on which was the name John J. Schneider in pencil, were the clews dropped by two men who today that and killed Charles Mutzberg, a saloon keeper, and wounded Charles Salisbury, after robbing them. The robbery and shooting were committed in Mutberg's saloon by two short, roughly-dressed men, armed with revolvers and with handkerchiefs tied over their faces.

ITALY EXCITED OVER INNSBRUCK AFFAIR

Rome, Nov. 20.—Demonstrations in protest against the Innsbruck affair ontinue to be made at various places

In Rome the students again started in the direction of the Austrian embassy and soon were augmented numbers on the streets. The po were insufficient to control the demon-stration. When they arrived at the

NEW METHODS IN CONSTRUCTING HERALD BUILDING.

CROWDS WATCHING CONCRETE MIXER AT WORK.

Even were knowledge on the subject lacking, observation would show that there is something "a little different" in the methods used to lay the foundation and has, to a degree, displaced the old-time brick and stone.

Speaking of the much greater progtions of The Herald building which is

St. Petersburg. Nov. 21, 4 a. m.—The suspense engendered by the Japanese attack on Poutiloff hill centinues. This movement has proved unsuccessful. It aimed merely to capture a Russian position, but whether it was intended to that something new is being employed in the construction of the building.

Not only is the concrete mixer, which turns out masses of sand, gravel and chipped rock in their proper proportions, being used for the first time in Salt Lake, but the material—concrete—used for the foundations is also being given its first trial in this city on The sale trial in the stone are thrown to structing the buildings themselves in stead of stone and brick. It is attractive in appearance and very durable."

The troops that had been called out the fact that we work from the fact that we work from the fact that we work from the onstruction is taking many forms, dumping concrete at the rear and work of the fact that we work from the onstruction is taking many forms, dumping concrete at the rear and work of the fact that we work from the onstruction state of stone and trive in appearance and very durable."

The troops that had been called out the entire new Herald building of concrete instead of stone as the station in the station to be erected on Main street, a few doors below the Progress building. The crowds which daily gathered all last week to watch concrete ground out of a "hamburg" machine attest that something new is being employed in the construction of the building.

-Photo by Harry Shipler.

Not only is the concrete mixer, which turns out masses of sand, gravel and chipped rock in their proper proportions, being used for the first time in Salt Lake, but the material—concrete—used for the first time in Salt Lake, but the material—concrete—used for the first time in Salt Lake, but the material—concrete—used for the first time in Salt Lake, but the material—concrete—used for the foundations is also being siven its first time in Salt Lake, but the material—concrete—used for the feat that we work of a man whose sale has a lower opening which is under the proper area of the mixer, which the material being dumped from gravel and rock the material being dumped from the wheelbarrows directly into the material being dumped from the wheelbarrows directly into the material being dumped from the wheelbarrows directly into the material being dumped from the wheelbarrows directly into the material being dumped from the wheelbarrows directly into the mouth of the machine. Once inside, coarse and fine stone are thrown together by revolving blades, and at the same time are passed through the proper amount of water. The immense drum seemingly has capacity for unlimited wheelbarrow loads.

The concrete comes out of the machine of construction for P. J. Moran, said:

"We can lay about 125 cubic yards with a larger force of men mixing by mature of a new idea in this city, they are the work would be able to put down only about sixty yards. The machine was set up Saturday and has been given in the construction for P. J. Moran, said:

"We can lay about 125 cubic yards with a larger force of men mixing by mature of a new idea in this city, they are the work would be able to put down only about sixty yards. The machine of the interest of the material being dumped from with a lar